

Tips for Organising a LOVE REACHES OUT

Arty Crafty Event

Make A Difference: I Can, You Can, We Can

Set a date (ideal for winter school holidays)

Decide your venue

Create invitations and posters to your LOVE

REACHES OUT arty crafty event and distribute liberally to all the kids in your network

Check out your local library and/or download books and images to inspire young artists and writers to create an entry that expresses “Love Reaches Out”. Include simple painting and art books too to stimulate ideas. Source good paper and art materials

Invite parishioners to create some tasty treats for morning or afternoon tea

Print out LOVE REACHES OUT: MAKE A DIFFERENCE entry forms and display posters at your venue

Have a really “kids friendly” person at the door welcoming children to the event

You could start the event with story time then leave lots of books around in a book corner (mat with cushions or bean bags) for kids to read. Perhaps have some videos of books playing on a monitor scattered around the room.

Encourage children to take their time creating their art and when finished to complete all the details on the entry form. Attach securely together. Gather all art to send to the delivery address before the closing date.
